

United Chinese Society of Hawai'i
Cultural Series Presents

Art of Calligraphy Workshop

April 26, 2025
10:00am
42 N. King St
UCS Hall

Join us for a hands-on workshop to learn the timeless art of Chinese calligraphy. Whether you're a beginner or looking to refine your skills, this workshop offers a unique opportunity to explore traditional techniques and create beautiful characters.

Spaces are limited, and RSVP is required!

Reserve your FREE spot now at
<https://forms.gle/ntBcmdhYV2YyYB5i6>.

Mahalo to our Title Sponsor

Hsin-Tzu Jen is a Ph.D. student in Chinese Linguistics at the University of Hawaii at Manoa. In addition to his role as a scholar, Hsin-Tzu is an avid practitioner of Chinese calligraphy. He has been practicing calligraphy since the age of 12 and has won several regional and national prizes in Taiwan. While he specializes in Seal Script, he is also proficient in Standard Script, Cursive Script, and Semi-cursive Script.