

United Chinese Society of Hawai'i
Cultural Series Presents

Chinese Tea Culture & History

April 26, 2025

11:30am

42 N. King St

UCS Hall

FREE

Join us for an insightful presentation on Chinese Tea Culture and History! Explore the rich traditions, significance, and timeless artistry of tea in Chinese culture. Don't miss this opportunity to deepen your understanding of tea's cultural legacy.

Dr. Hong Jiang is Associate Professor of Geography at University of Hawaii at Manoa, and her current research includes implications of Daoism for the environment, and the culture of tea in China and Taiwan. She has written on tea culture in the Tang and Ming dynasties, and on Taiwan's famous high-mountain oolong tea.

Spaces are limited, and RSVP is required!

Reserve your spot now at
<https://forms.gle/jM9w1UmLGs27EsEa7>

